HARDING ELECTED PRESIDENT

Republican Candidate in Early Returns is Certain of 275 Votes In The U.S. Electoral College

On Face of Returns Showing Growing Landslide For Harding, Governor Cox's Own Newspaper, The Dayton Daily News, Concedes Election of Harding Without Waiting For Returns From The West Which Four Years Ago Elected Wilson in The Face of Pluralities For Hughes in The East

NATIONAL NEWS, Nov. 8.—On the face of returns showing the growing landslide for Harding, Governor Cox's own newspaper, The Dayton Daily News, and Chairman White of the Democratic National Committee, soon after 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of Senator Harding. Without waiting for returns from the west, which four years ago elected Wilson in the face of pluralities for Hughes throughout the east, the Democratic candidate and his chief manager conceded that on the "solemn referendum" which President Wilson had passed, Harding would decide the League of Nations question, America's vote had preferred Harding, who favored "staying out" to Cox, who favored "joining in." Governor Cox's own newspaper office, when the concession of Senator Harding's election was published, said he would issue no statement. Senator Harding at his home in Marion, said he was "more given to prayer to God, to make him capable of playing my part," than he was to exultation.

HARDING VOTES.

At 12:30 o'clock this morning with only 17 congressional districts in the nation having returns in, Harding was certain of 275 votes in the election college from the 43 states.

Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming were unreported.

Two hundred and sixty states are now reported.

DOUBTFUL VOTES.

The states from which returns were received were all reported in full. There were 17 states in which the returns were not yet in, either the Harding or Cox column won.

The Republican presidential candidate, Senator Charles E. Hughes, of New York, was elected by 21 states; Senator Cox, of Ohio, by 17; Senator Harding, of California, by 15; Senator Wilson, of New Jersey, by 12; Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, by 10; Senator Davis, of Mississippi, by 8; Senator Tammie, of Georgia, by 7; Senator Smith, of Minnesota, by 6; Senator Coolidge, of Massachusetts, by 5; Senator Thompson, of Connecticut, by 4; Senator Key, of North Carolina, by 3; Senator Edwards, of South Carolina, by 2; Senator Tammie, of Virginia, by 1, total of 124 votes.

CHEATNAH FOR COX.

There were 22 states in which Cox at that hour were certain.

Arkansas, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Illinois, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia, a total of 124 votes.

Early Returns.

NEW YORK, Senator Harding's state, was certain of the 22 states in which he had a majority, and he hoped.

The Republican presidential candidate, Senator Charles E. Hughes, of New York, was elected by 21 states.

At 11:15 o'clock eastern time, with the east and midwest landslide in the east was continuing with gathering momentum.

At the rate the Harding column was moving, it was evident that a Republican plurality in the state of New York would be around the under-cutting of the 275 votes in the election college.

New York City, normally Democratic, was certain of 100 votes, and had a margin of 100 over Cox.

The governor-elect, who had continued to lead the Republican managers claiming the defeat of Governor Hughes, was certain of 100 votes.

Pennsylvania returns at that hour showed Harding ahead of Cox by 3 to 1, and Senator Pennington elected.

In the same district of Charles E. Hughes, Senator Tammie also, Harding beat Cox by 3 to 1, both Democratic territories.

In the New York senatorial race, Senator Pennington, the Democratic opponent, lost to Senator Coolidge, the largest plurality ever given to a presidential candidate.

Ohio had a greater vote for Harding.

Harding carried two wards in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and two parts of the state, the sugar belt, both Democratic territories.

In the New York senatorial race, Senator Pennington, the Democratic opponent, lost to Senator Coolidge, the largest plurality ever given to a presidential candidate.

Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Georgia, and the Carolinas were certain of Senator Harding's election.

Florida, Democratic, was certain of Senator Pennington's election.

South Carolina, "Read All About It," was certain of Senator Harding's election.

Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi were certain of Senator Pennington's election.

The late closing of the polls in the western states, the difference in the time zones, and a greatly increased vote were factors in the early return from the west.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—Returns from 128 precincts out of 4,228 in Minnesota give for president Harding 27,123, and for Cox 16,600, giving a record margin of 22 of the nearly six thousand in the state.

Over 156 precincts in thirty-three counties gave: Fred M. Higdon, Democrat, 6,454 and Coolidge, the non-partisan losing choice, 18,122.

Minnesota's electors were predicted the rate already shown on the

REPUBLICANS CLAIM GAINS IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A net Republican gain of "eight and a half" seats was claimed by the Republicans in the Senate, according to the League of Nations question, which President Wilson had preferred. Harding, who favored "staying out" to Cox, who favored "joining in." Governor Cox's own newspaper office, when the concession of Senator Harding's election was published, said he would issue no statement. Senator Harding at his home in Marion, said he was "more given to prayer to God, to make him capable of playing my part," than he was to exultation.

Plebiscite On The Question Of Govt. Control Of Liquor Or "Bone-Dry" Law Probable In Province Early Next Year

Problem Will Come Before Legislature During Next Session and Almost Certain Vote of the People Will be Demanded. — Large Majority of Private Members Favor Having an Expression From Electors Before Tinkering Further With Liquor Act.

A second vote on Alberta's liquor problem is altogether likely within the next twelve months. With the issue of governmental jurisdiction settled by the recent verdict in the arbitration referendum of October 1st, the province now holds the sole authority for legislating and enforcing liquor laws within its borders. What policy is to be followed in dealing with the problem in the future will be settled by the legislative assembly in the session which is likely to be called during the coming January.

Premier Stewart and other members of his cabinet have refused absolutely to commit themselves to either their proposal to the legislature or to a plebiscite. It is officially stated that no decision will be made until it is made to the legislature. However members of the cabinet have been fully satisfied that the public opinion of the province is in favor of a movement in the province for the taking of a plebiscite in Alberta similar to that which has been established almost beyond a doubt that enough signatures have been collected to bear from within the legislature the bill for a plebiscite.

Liquor Laws Will Face Vote.

A survey of the legislature ranks indicates that an overwhelming majority of the members are in favor of a plebiscite question settled by the people of Alberta. The question is as to whether "bone-dry" laws or alternative laws are more suitable for the province. A majority of the members of the legislature, and even the opposition, and seven Democrats were returned, six Republicans.
